Expotextil Perú 2023

XVI International Textile and Apparel Industry Suppliers Fair

Expotextil Peru, International Textile and Apparel Industry Suppliers Fair, is the most complete sustainable supply offer of the textile and apparel circuit in the region. Its XVI edition will be held next October at the Jockey Exhibition Center.

Expotextil Peru 2023 has already assumed since its previous edition, the challenge not only to return with more strength and become more versatile, but also to consolidate itself as the most complete Information and Trade Promotion Platform of the country in the textile and apparel sector. But most importantly, to incorporate in the same platform, the most important guilds of the country and micro, small, medium, and large companies that include in their production, processes, technologies or other, part of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

And all of them with the same common goal: To be Sustainability Providers for the world.
