Global Design Talents Compete as the 2024 Taiwan Fashion Design Award Approaches!

The 38th annual Taiwan Fashion Design Award will take place on October 16 at 2:00 PM at Songshan Cultural and Creative Park Warehouse No. 5. This year's competition will gather top emerging designers from around the globe, engaging in a fierce creative battle.

Twelve designers from around the world have been selected from over 500 participants, with their collections focusing on themes such as sustainability, creativity, and functionality. These talented designers will showcase their creativity and technical skills, using diverse design languages to express their unique fashion aesthetics.

This year's esteemed panel of judges includes professionals from various fields. Judges from Taiwan, Japan, and the United States will evaluate the finalists in real-time during the competition, and the top winner will be revealed after a rigorous review process.

Since its inception, the Taiwan Fashion Design Award has consistently discovered and nurtured emerging global design talents, providing a platform for connection with the international fashion industry. The award fosters collaboration and exchange among designers from around the world. This year's competition boasts a total prize of US$35,000, generously sponsored by renowned companies such as Lealea Enterprise Co., Ltd., Li Peng Enterprise Co., Ltd., Cuddy Global Ltd., New Wide Enterprise Co., Ltd., New Wide Garment Co., Ltd., and the Fortune Industrial and Commercial Development Foundation. Special thanks to these sponsors for their support in providing important resources and opportunities for the next generation of designers.

The event will be live-streamed globally on the Industrial Development Administration, Ministry of Economic Affairs' Facebook page (<https://www.facebook.com/ida.moea/>), allowing audiences worldwide to witness the exciting moments of this annual fashion spectacle. We invite everyone to stay tuned and watch the event live.
